

Bridge City ISD achieved a Recognized accountability rating for the 2008-2009 school year from the Texas Education Agency for the second consecutive year. This rating is based on students' performance on the Texas Assessment of Knowledge and Skills (TAKS) tests, completion rates, attendance rates, and annual drop out rates.

BCHS achieved a Recognized accountability rating for the 2008-2009 school year. This is the second consecutive year that BCBS has achieved this rating. Gold Performance Recognition was earned in the following areas: Attendance, College Ready Graduates, Texas Success Initiative English/Language Arts, Texas Success Initiative Mathematics, number of Commended students on the Social Studies TAKS test.

BCMS also achieved a Recognized accountability rating for the 2008-2009 school year. This is the second consecutive year that BCMS has achieved this rating. Gold Performance Recognition was earned in the following areas: Reading/ English/Language Arts, Writing , and Social Studies.

BCI achieved an EXEMPLARY rating for the 2 consecutive year. BCI also earned a Gold Performance Recognition in the areas of Reading, Writing, Math, and Science. BCI has also earned recognition as a Title I Distinguished School.

We are extremely proud of our staff and students.

Percentage of BCISD students meeting or surpassing the passing standard on the TAKS test:

Content	BCISD percent passing (All students)	TEA Met Standard Percent Passing to achieve a Recognized rating (All students)
Reading/ELA	96%	75%
Writing	95%	75%
Math	85%	75%
Social Studies	97%	75%
Science	87%	75%